

Blaenwaun Caravan Park - The home of the dolphin. Situated 4 miles north of Cardigan, a peaceful, friendly, family run site. A quiet retreat with panoramic views of Cardigan Bay and the surrounding countryside. The park overlooks the exquisite National Trust beach of Mwnt, which can be reached via a bridle path adjoining the site. So why not visit us and experience for yourself the beautiful beaches, superb coastal scenery, the variety of wildlife that is West Wales. A warm welcome awaits you at Blaenwaun Caravan Park.

Stay with us

Here at Blaenwaun, we can offer you a refreshing and leisurely atmosphere, a place to experience a lifestyle that is a far cry from the hectic stresses of everyday urban life. Our spacious caravan park is perfectly located for exploring Ceredigion. We have a variety of accommodation options available at Blaenwaun - Touring caravan and motor homes to camping and luxury static caravan hire. No family is too big, and you can even bring your dog!

Facilities

We offer a 4* washroom, including a disabled shower room and baby change facility. Electric hook-ups available to all visitors - we can guarantee comfort during your stay. Our dish washing and laundry facility houses a microwave, kettle, fridge and toaster. Our on-site shop stocks farm fresh eggs, bread, milk and gifts, along with our home-reared beef range. Camping and Calor gas are available for purchase and exchange.

Things to do on-site

Peaceful, with glorious sea views, no two sunsets are the same. There is plenty of room for ball games, kite flying or just riding a bike. You can enjoy your own BBQ or campfire. Being a working farm, animals feature in our day to day life. We have pot-bellied pigs waiting to be fed, Jemima and Wilma the goats along with their friends, Guto the donkey and Pippi the pony graze away quietly, whilst the ducks wonder freely.
