HOLIDAY HOMES

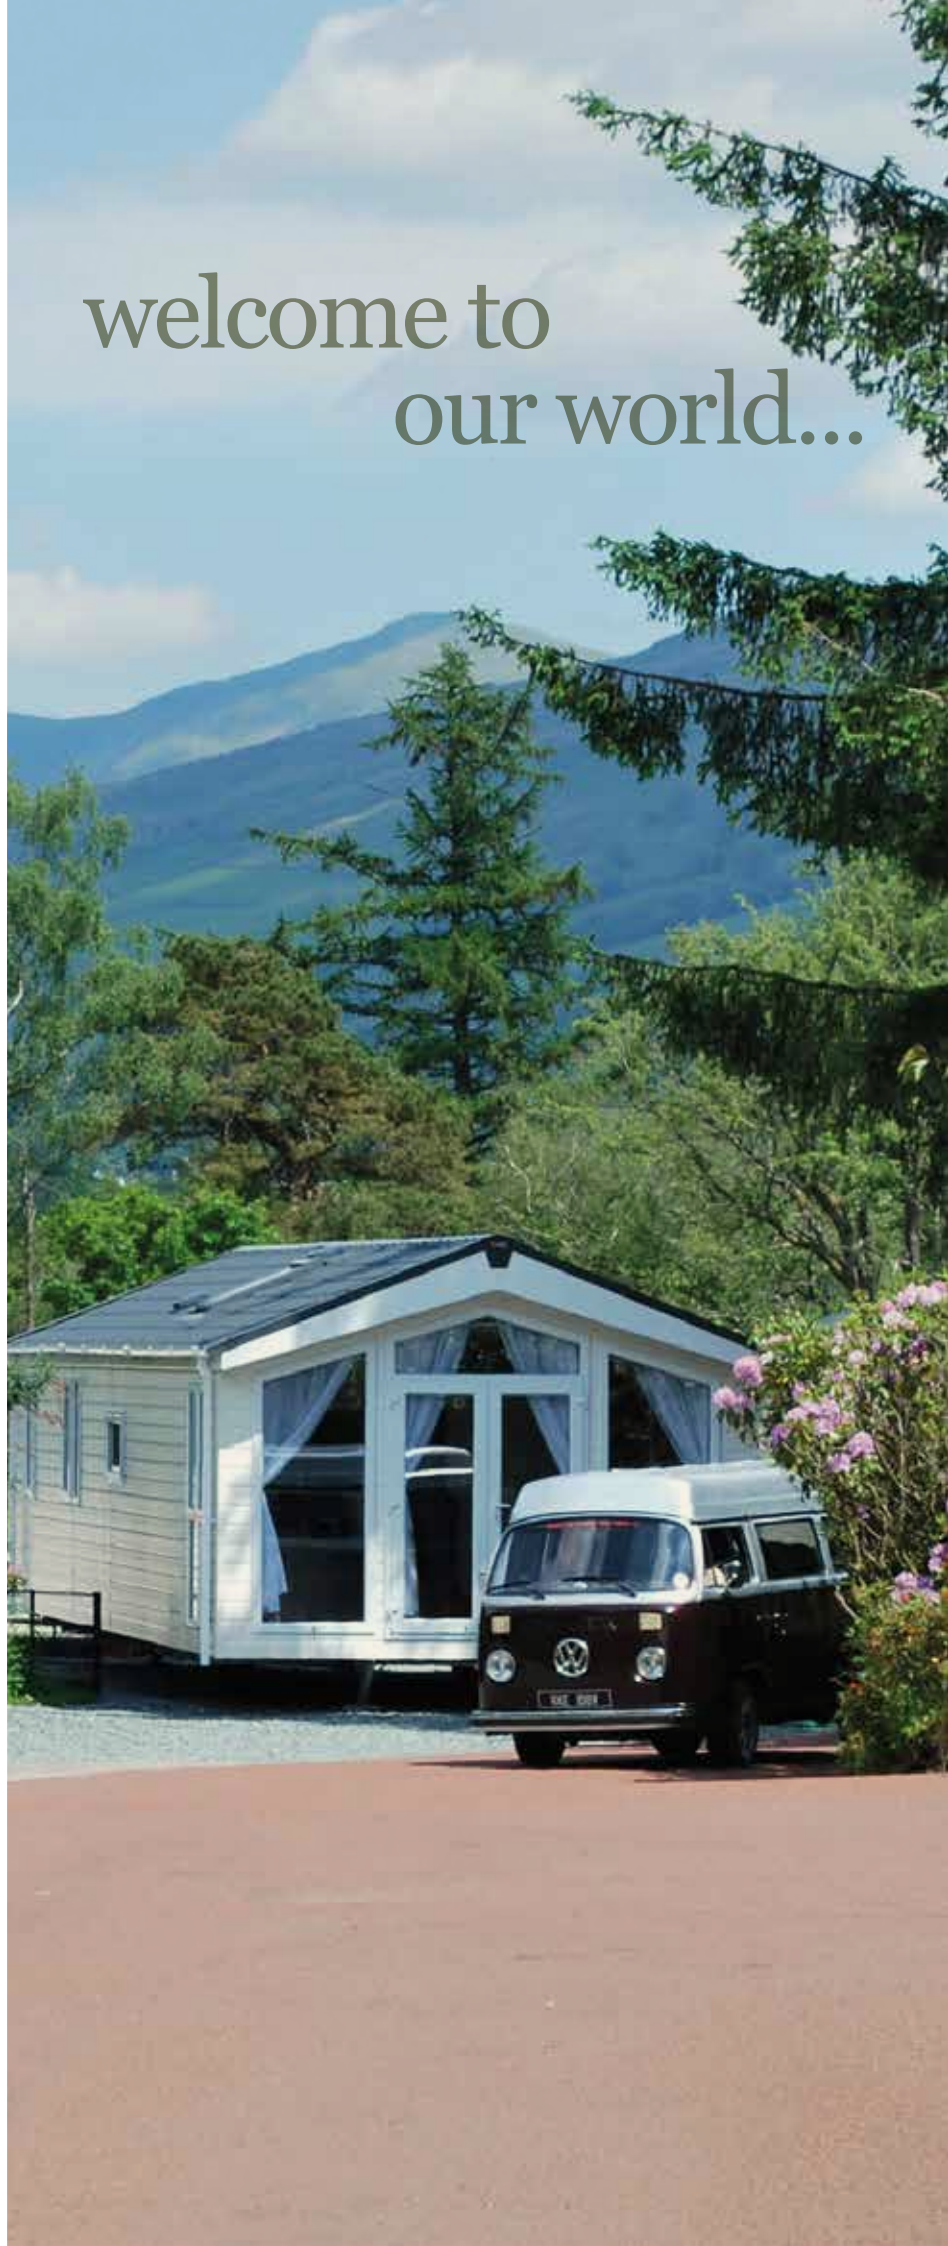

Over the past 18 years, our family has been privileged to own Skelwith Fold and we have helped to protect its natural beauty and its diverse flora and fauna.

During that time Skelwith has developed into an exceptional caravan park, creating a setting for the perfect Lake District experience and a lifetime of treasured memories for generations to come.

Many say, and I would agree, one visit is not enough. I am confident you will enjoy your stay and that our friendly team will help you feel welcome.

welcome to our world...

A BEAUTIFUL LAKE LAND SECLUDED FOREST

A SECLUDED FOREST SETTING IN WHICH TO ENJOY SPECIAL TIMES WITH FRIENDS OR FAMILY

It's not just the glorious 130 acres of woodland here for you to explore. Nor just the countless wildlife discoveries waiting to be made. It's the magical atmosphere of a tranquil environment where your cares slip away from the moment you enter our gates.

As you turn through the gates at Skelwith Fold you will know you've made a good decision. Our magical red road, winding to our park reception, is canopied by trees and bordered by woodland where - likely as not - you will catch a glimpse of our resident wildlife, such as roe deer, woodpeckers, and if you're lucky, even a red squirrel.

For many years the grounds of Skelwith encircled one of Cumbria's finest houses and access was limited to the privileged few, many of whom are well-known names such as Marshal, Wordsworth and Schwitters to name but a few. Today this magical woodland with its labyrinth of paths and forest glades is available for us all to use alongside the birds, squirrels, deer and other fascinating creatures.

A SENSE OF FREEDOM SKELWITH FOLD

THE PERFECT ESCAPE FOR TOURING CARAVANS, MOTORHOMES,
HOLIDAY HOMES AND WOODLAND HIDEAWAYS

Skelwith Fold houses over 450 pitches but has the feel of a much smaller park - the accommodation areas have been carefully and sympathetically set out in small forest glades, settled amongst natural undulating features, creating a sense of quiet and intimacy. Even in the height of the season, the park does not have a crowded feel.

Our 130 acres are begging to be explored. There are plenty of paths to follow, leading to a wealth of discoveries, including our mystical tarn, sculptures and breathtaking views of the Langdale Pikes and surrounding fells.

Evenings are often spent alfresco, enjoying a meal of Cumbrian food cooked on the BBQ, with a glass of wine, all available in Skelwith's shop. Others enjoy evenings out in the locality with Ambleside and Hawkshead close by. The shop also offers the chance to buy home-baked bread, pastries, newspapers, local gifts and small toys for the children.

The recently refurbished library, laundrette and drying room, and luxury heated toilet-shower facilities ensure guests have access to all their creature comforts.

Our Wi-Fi hotspots provide the opportunity to browse online and follow 'Sammy squirrel at Skelwith' on Facebook or find out what's on by visiting the Skelwith Fold website.
