Perfect for ...

Large or two families

Hen Do's

Friends of all ages

Our bus might be retired from tourist trips but it can still show a good time! Parsons camp is all yours and totally private so you can enjoy time with just your friends or family and explore or stay right where you are BBQ-ing on the fire or sipping some cold drinks on the open-top of the bus.

The bus will sleep five and the top-deck acts as your indoor living area with a fully fitted kitchen and open-top dining area for when the suns out! Some of you will need to disembark for the night to a shepherd's hut for two or a bunkhouse for four (double and 2 singles) Outside is a handmade seating area set around the campfire.

Tucked round the corner you will find your own private loo and a horsebox with a basin, hot shower and bath!

But don't just take our word for it...
