

PERMISSIVE ACCESS

Welcome to Earlsway Farm. There are over 9 km of permissive bridledways across this farm, and these routes link up with bridledways on two neighbouring farms. There is also an area of open access land for the enjoyment of all, with a wide variety of plant and wildlife interest. These routes offer beautiful views across the Suffolk countryside and pathways through land of high conservation value which is part of Natural England's Higher Level Stewardship Scheme. Please respect that this is a working farm and please keep to the marked route so that any wildlife are not unduly disturbed. Thank you.

This access has been provided under the Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs' farm conservation schemes as managed by Natural England, which help farmers and land managers protect and improve the countryside, its wildlife and history. It is permissive access and no new rights of way are being created. Existing rights of way are not affected. Please follow the Countryside Code and observe any other requirements shown above. Do not disturb wildlife, livestock or other visitors and in particular keep dogs under control. This is working farmland so please take care; people using this site do so at their own risk. Access ends on 31st August 2020.
